

CPRS (Toronto) Inc.

CPRS Toronto Affiliate Membership

Designed for PR practitioners in the early years of their career, who have graduated from an educational institution during the past three years, CPRS (Toronto) Inc. Affiliate membership offers potential members all the information, networking and volunteer benefits of belonging to CPRS (Toronto), but at a special "early stage" practitioners' price.

To be considered for the Affiliate membership category of CPRS (Toronto), the potential member works in PR or communications on either a full or part time basis, and received their PR certificate or educational degree or diploma from an accredited educational institution during the previous 3-year period.

A CPRS (Toronto) society member may hold the Affiliate membership status for a maximum of 24 months; after that time, to retain membership the society member must change their status and become a full member of the National society.

The Affiliate member receives all society information, privileges and rights accorded to full members of CPRS (Toronto), including society events, initiatives, publications and volunteer opportunities. The Affiliate member is not eligible to receive services of the National CPRS office*.

The cost of the CPRS (Toronto) Affiliate membership is $115.00/year.

*National member services include news bulletins, annual membership directory, voting at the National Annual General Meeting, receiving members' rate at the annual national conference, and access to the members' only areas of the national CPRS website.
